

Drama society's show will be magic

WITCHCRAFT will come to Chelmsford next week, when amateur performers take on a musical version of a famous Jack Nicholson film.

Members of Chelmsford Amateur Operatic and Dramatic Society will be at the Civic Theatre stage, Fairfield Road, for the Witches of Eastwick.

The show will run each evening from Tuesday until Saturday, with a matinee on the final day.

The plot revolves around three New England divorcees whose fantasies about their ideal man become true when Darryl van Horne shows up.

In 2000 the film was transformed into a musical for the West End.

Tickets cost £14 on the first two days and £16 for the other three dates.

To book a seat, either call the theatre's box office on 01245 606505 or visit www.chelmsford.gov.uk/theatres.
