

Members'

Bulletin

Hello, again!

Apologies for the delay in getting this second issue out to you, I hope you enjoy it.....

Parking @ HQ

Just a gentle reminder, please, to NOT park your vehicles outside HQ. Terms of our lease state that only people dropping off/picking up, or those with blue (disabled) badges, are authorised to park there. The Ballet Company have also been reminded. The carpark is FREE and we urge you to use it at all times. Saturdays are difficult because of the Park Run, I know, but running late for a rehearsal is not an excuse!!!

Website

It would be really helpful if you could let Jessica Broad have your feedback regarding the new website, please. Updates are added daily, so it is in your best interest to visit it regularly.

Values

Thank you Tom Tull for volunteering! We still need more of you to form the working group, which will be chaired by Claire Carr. Please email/text me.....Your society, your values. Nuff said.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP

On Friday 26th March, Patrick Tucker was awarded life membership of CAODS. Our president, Gill Plumtree, surprised Patrick with his award before the start of a 'Legally Blonde' rehearsal. He has been with the society for many years, not only playing many principal roles, but also as Chairman and Musical Director. Congratulations Patrick!

Well, we (nearly) did it! Our audiences loved it  Thank you to everyone on stage and off who helped make 'Legally Blonde' such a huge success. We broke even - only just - which just goes to show how important it is to sell, sell, sell those tickets.....

Future shows....

Thanks for your suggestions - keep 'em coming! Here's what's been discussed so far:

- Made in Dagenham - being done by other local societies this year (Brentwood) so no licence available - possibility for 2018?
- Oliver - CYGAMS next show
- Sweet Charity - currently has performance restrictions in place and is not a good seller
- Hair - contains nudity - not deemed appropriate for the society
- Titanic - CAODS performed in 2012 - too soon to repeat
- My Fair Lady - currently unavailable
- 42nd Street - we last performed in 1997 - available
- Spamalot - Springers next show at Civic - not much for ensemble to do
- Cabaret - not available
- Mack & Mabel - available
- Adams Family - not available
- Calamity Jane - Police Society's next production, so not ideal
- Singing in the Rain - we last did this in 2005, so possibility...
- The King & I - lots for children to do, but not much for men
- The Sound of Music - not much for company to do
- Kiss Me Kate - available

Production Team Announced

Ray Jeffery will be your director and Bryan Cass will be waving his baton as Musical Director. Thank you to those who offered their support as PA - I can now reveal that Robyn Gowers will be your Production Assistant, with Jill Gordon as your Dance Captain. Thank you, ladies! Thanks must also go to M&G for their £1000 sponsorship of the production.

#37 Charlie Cartwright £20

#119 Steph Yorke-Edwards £10

A reminder that our next coffee morning will be held at the HQ on

Monday 18th April

Children always welcome!

'Legally Blonde' dress rehearsal photos taken by Christopher Yorke-Edwards, are now available on 2 CDs to purchase from Jean Pinkney for £5. Please email her dandjpinkney@outlook.com or send a cheque. Thank you.

As part of our social/fundraising calendar, some of our members will be performing Mike Leigh's acclaimed play, 'Abigail's Party'.

Beverly and her husband Laurence host a drinks party for a few neighbours in their suburban house. The guests - Angela, her husband Tony, and Sue, a divorcee whose daughter Abigail is having a rowdy party nearby - are subjected to Beverly's desire to be an exemplary hostess.

This event will be held at HQ on Saturday 30th April and tickets cost £15 each, which includes a hot meal. 1970's fancy dress is optional.
