

Celebration: Members of Chelmsford Amateur Operatic and Dramatic Society will sing songs from musicals at the concert

Marking their 90th

A POPULAR Chelmsford amateur theatre group is bringing the curtain down on its 90th anniversary year.

• Chelmsford Amateur Operatic

and Dramatic Society will present a concert on Sunday, November 7, at the town's Civic Theatre.

This will feature songs from the musicals including Wicked, Love Never Dies, Legally Blonde and Les Miserables to name but a few.

CAODS 2010 productions started back in February with the popular musical Fiddler on the Roof, followed by Disney's Beauty and the Beast in September, which was very nearly a complete sell-out.

It was a difficult task in today's financial climate and arguably the most spectacular show staged by the group.

There will be two performances on Sunday, at 4pm and 7.30pm. Call 01245 609568 for ticket prices.
