We have exceeded the maximum number of 80

90th Anniversary Dinner

Friday 29th October 2010
Hylands House

Due to popular demand for tickets (111 to date) the committee have discussed various options regarding the evening and have agreed to accommodate all those people who want to attend by hiring further rooms at Hylands rather than changing locations.

Our reasoning for this is that the evening is a dinner with no formal speeches or dancing. The bar will be situated in the Grand Hall and tables laid up in both the Banqueting Hall and the separate Blue Room/Boudoir Room. People will be able to circulate freely during the evening.

If you were a member who booked in after the first 80 (you would have been told), we can now offer you a ticket. Seating will be in the Blue Room/Boudoir room and will hold almost as many as the Banqueting Hall.

Please contact Jean at doupink@lineone.net or phone 01245 421503 to confirm whether you wish your name to remain on the list

We can also take more bookings up to a maximum of 150.

We have never before had such a response, but then we have never before reached 90 years of age!

We trust that everyone will agree that this is a good solution to what is a tricky problem.
