Bulletin - July/August 2017

Edited by Kim Anderson

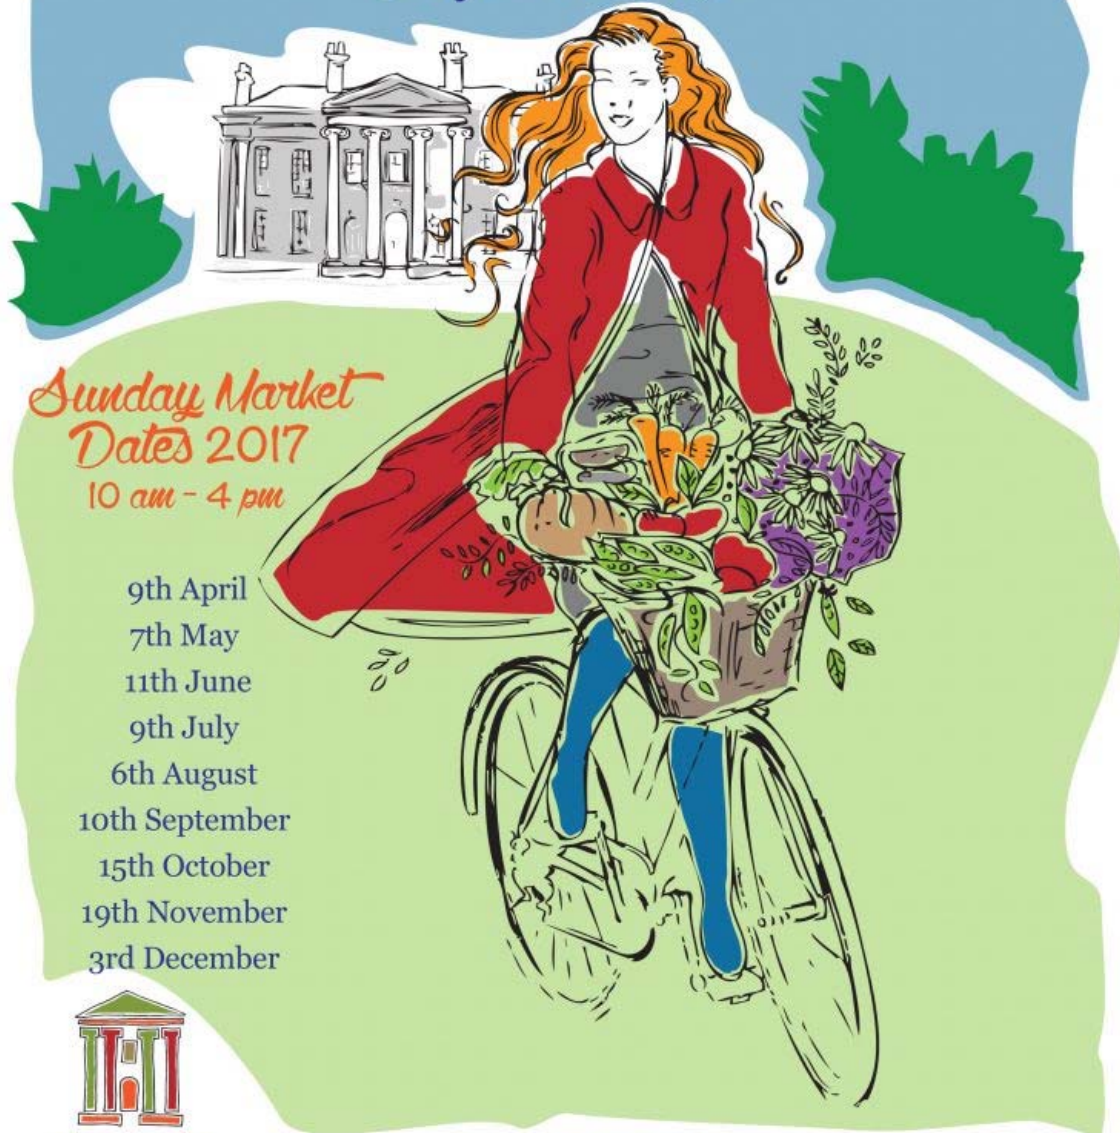

Our super duper publicity team chose a 1950's diner in Southend as the perfect setting for a photoshoot to promote All Shook Up. Pictured above are Simon Bristoe, Jenny Pike and Charlotte Broad puttin' another song on the record machine! Please continue to do as much as you can to keep pushing those ticket sales - we are only at 22% - still considerably behind the amount sold at this stage for our last show. Please also remember to use social media -

UPDATE.....On Tuesday 1st August the newly formed Project Team, consisting of committee members from both CAODS & Young Gen, met to discuss Essex County Council's plans for redevelopment of the Meteor Way site. Pending a formal response from the consultation, a plan of action is currently being drafted. In the meantime, we will have a stand and an electronic display in the HQ foyer and in the Civic foyer during show week, inviting people to sign a petition book to help our cause. In addition, a formal invite will also be sent to City Councillors to attend our next Open Evening on 4th October to look around the building and get a vibe of the membership and activity. Fingers crossed.....

Many congratulations to Graham Baguley and his fiancée Jacque Pridie, on their recent engagement. Wishing you much happiness together, with love from all at Caods xxx

I hate to mention the 'C' word during British Summertime, but Dave Yetton is organising a members' Christmas meal at Little Channels in Chelmsford for 3rd December. He has had over 50 people express an interest in going so far, but he needs to fill 90 places - so if you have yet to confirm yours - please let Dave know at your earliest convenience. Thank you.

FUTURE SHOWS

A committee meeting was held couple of weeks ago to discuss future show options. A detailed shortlist has been created and investigations are ongoing as to whether these are viable or available for Caods for 2019/2020. Further information will be shared with you very soon.
