

A scene from the Merry Widow starring Phyl Hart and Russ Watson which opened at the Civic Theatre last night.

Widow still going strong at 70

THE Chelmsford Amateur Operatic Dramatic Society's production of the Merry Widow opened last night at the Civic Theatre — and the tickets are selling fast.

Secretary, Mr. Stan Carsons said that anyone wishing to go should get tickets as soon as possible as they are nearly all sold out.

The Merry Widow, a musical comedy, is 70 years old and has always been a firm favourite with audiences.

Hart as the Merry Widow and Russ Watson as Count Danilo. Also appearing in leading roles are Stan Carsons, Sheila Stiling and Patrick Tucker.

The show is held nightly at 7.30 p.m. with a matinee on Saturday, at 4 p.m.
